

Country Wisdom!

Don't name a pig you plan to eat.

Country fences need to be horse high, pig tight & bull strong.

Life ain't how fast you run, or how high you climb, but how well you bounce.

Keep skunks & lawyers at a distance.

Life is simpler when you plow around the stumps.

A bumble bee's faster'n a John Deere tractor.

Trouble with a milk cow is she won't stay milked.

Don't skinny dip with snapping turtles.

Words that soak in are whispered, not yelled.

Meanness don't happen overnight.

To know how country folks are doing, look at their barns, not their houses.

Never lay an angry hand on a kid or an animal, it just ain't helpful.

Teachers, Moms & hoot owls sleep with one eye open.

Forgive your enemies. It messes with their heads.

Don't sell your mule to buy a plow.

Two can live as cheap as one if one don't eat.

Don't corner something meaner'n you.

You can catch more flies with honey than vinegar – assuming you wanta catch flies.

Man's the only critter who feels the need to label things such as flowers'n weeds.

It don't take a very big person to carry a grudge.

Don't go huntin' with a fellow named Chug-a-Lug.

You can't unsay cruel things.

Every path has puddles.

Don't wrestle with pigs: you get all muddy & pigs love it.

The best sermons are lived, not preached.

Most stuff people worry about never happens.

The Ten Commandments display was removed from the Alabama Supreme Court building because you can't post Thou Shalt Not Steal, Thou Shalt Not Commit Adultery & Thou Shall Not Lie—in a building full of lawyers & politicians without creating a hostile work environment.
